The Fund's investment objective

The objective of the Fund's activities is long-term capital growth.

Investment policy

The Management Company invests the Fund's assets in securities traded on the global regulated markets with an emerging markets bias. The assets of the Fund may be invested in securities traded on regulated markets of all and any countries. It is however the intention of the Management Company to focus investments into securities of issuers who are either based in countries commonly considered to be emerging markets or which have substantial business interests in such countries.

The Management Company follows a sector approach when investing the Fund's assets. The Fund's assets are mainly invested into the shares of companies directly or indirectly active in the agricultural sector. The precise shares of each asset class, type of issuer and countries in the assets of the Fund shall be determined in the course of the everyday activities of the Fund. A more detailed description of the principles of the Fund's investment policy is available in the Fund's rules.

The Fund may invest in derivative instruments only for the purpose of hedging risks from fluctuations of securities prices in the Fund's assets and of interest rates. The Fund may invest in derivative instruments the underlying asset of which is currencies in which the Fund may invest also for the purpose of achieving the Fund's investment objectives. The Fund's total exposure relating to derivative instruments may not exceed the total net asset value of the Fund. According to the opinion of the Management Company, investing into derivative instruments does not significantly increase the Fund's risk level because derivative instruments are mostly used for hedging risks.

The Fund's risk profile

Investing in the Fund is accompanied by various risks such as market risk, country risk, issuer risk, credit risk, settlement risk, custody risk, liquidity risk, foreign exchange rate risk, interest rate risk, and the risk due to concentration of certain markets or asset classes that may affect the return on the investment. A more detailed overview of these risks is provided in the full prospectus. The activities of the Fund may or may not be profitable; thus, there is no guarantee to unit-holders that they will get back the amount invested in the Fund or that it will grow. Past performance of the Fund does not guarantee similar results in the future. Due to the Fund's investment policy, the price of a Unit may be very volatile meaning that investors should have a long-term investment horizon. The Fund is suitable for an investor who has previous experience with financial products. A holding in the Fund is suitable as a part of a diversified portfolio.

The Fund's income and taxation

The Fund's income shall not be distributed to unit-holders but shall be reinvested. Unit-holders profit or loss shall be reflected in the changes of a Unit's net asset value. According to the legislation of Estonia, the Fund is not a taxable person and does not therefore pay taxes in Estonia. If a unit-holder is a taxable person, gains from Units may be taxable. The Management Company does not withhold any taxes on gains earned from Units. Declaring such gains in the tax declaration of accounting period is an obligation of a unit-holder. The tax system applicable to an investor may depend on the investor's residence for tax purposes, legal set-up and other circumstances. Investors are advised to consult a competent tax advisor.
